

HOW

BOBO

became

Diego

by Claudia Segovia

this book is dedicated to my Bobo for always being so happy to practice & work so so hard in your speech all these years...

and to Tasha, for teaching
him how to speak.

Bobo made up his own language.

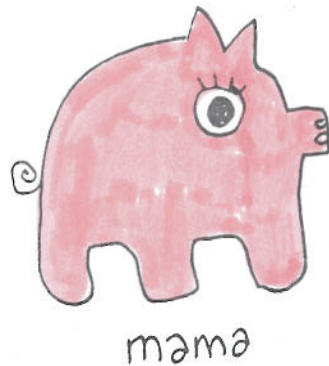

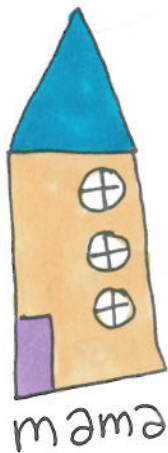

when he wanted a cookie,
he pointed to the location

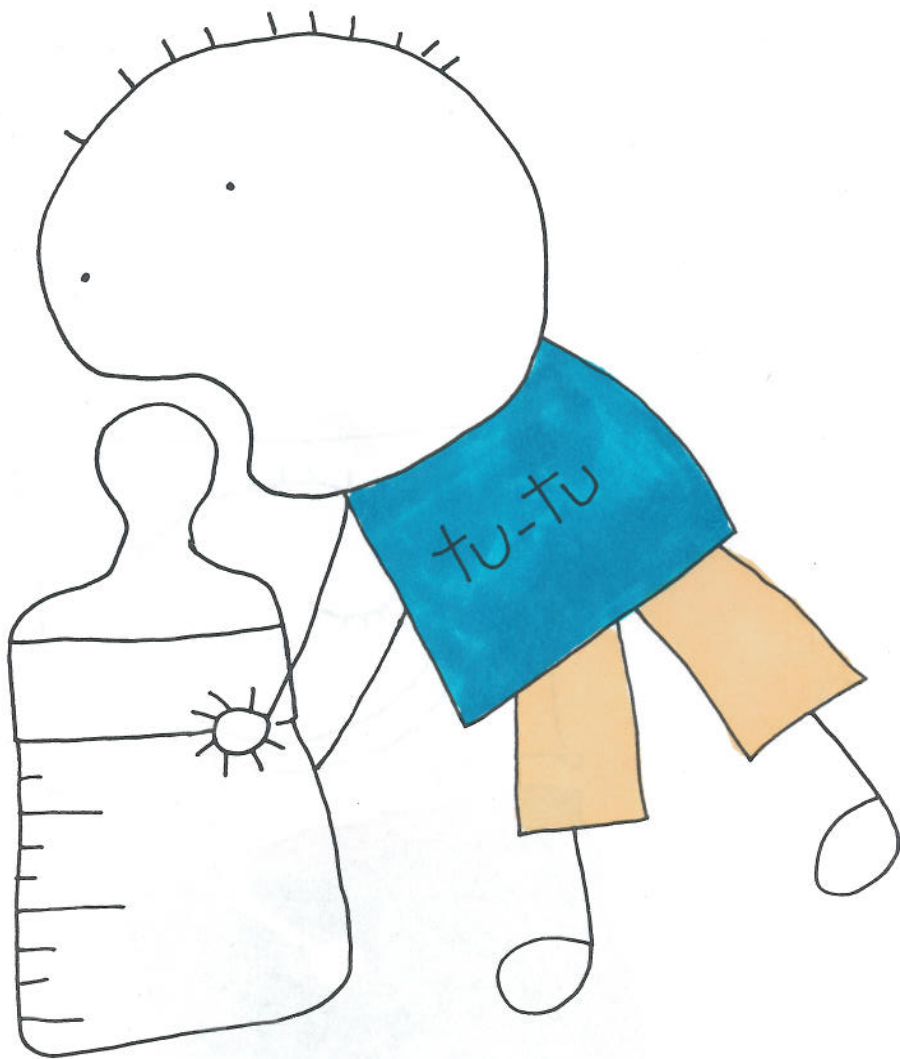

and said "AAAAAA"

Then he learned how to say
"mama". Mama was his first word and mama was so happy...
Soon mama found out mama
was everything !!

(and she was still happy)

if he was thirsty and wanted his milky he would say "Tu-tu"

and then "mo tu-tu"

Babaa
was
for cuddling

itsy bitsy was
"LLLLLL"

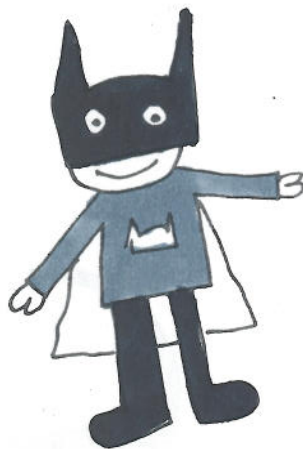

These were his favourite super heroes

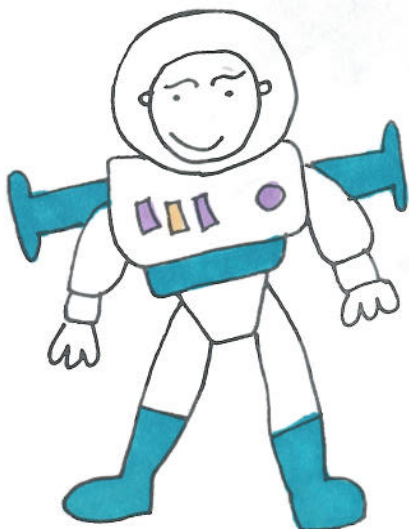

"Brrm bt tm"

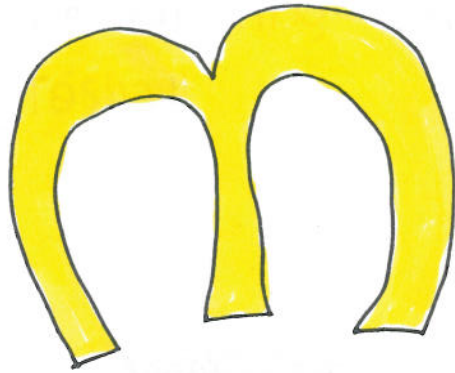

"maman"

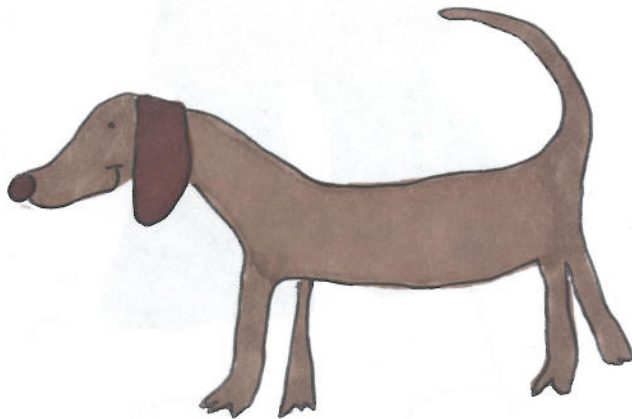

"Ba"

and his favourite place to eat
"papapa anu"

He loved dogs, and called them "UUUUUUU"

Other people had trouble understanding him, so we went to see the knitting-word-practicing fairy: Tasha!!

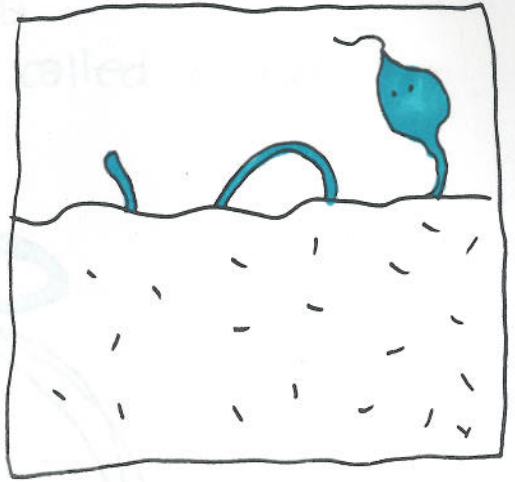

she made up fun games

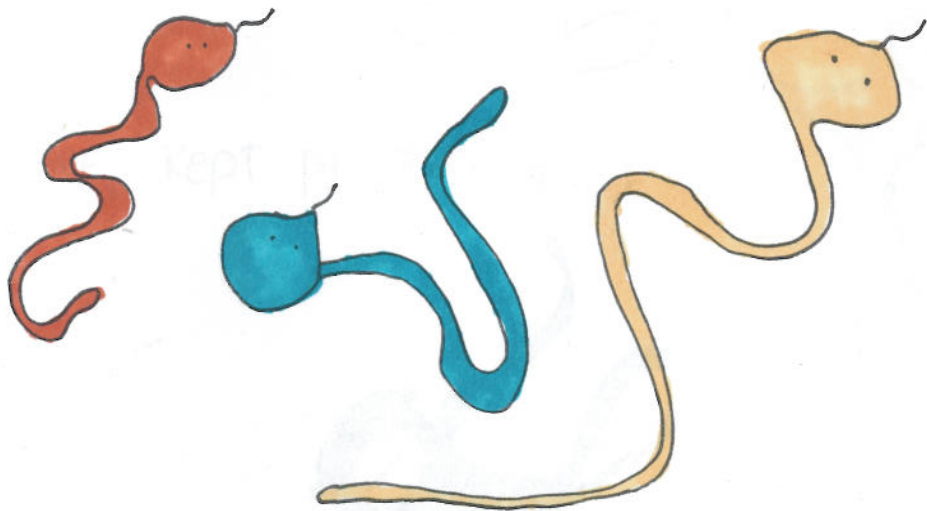

and practiced with monkeys

Somewhere
The man
Generous
with snakes in rice

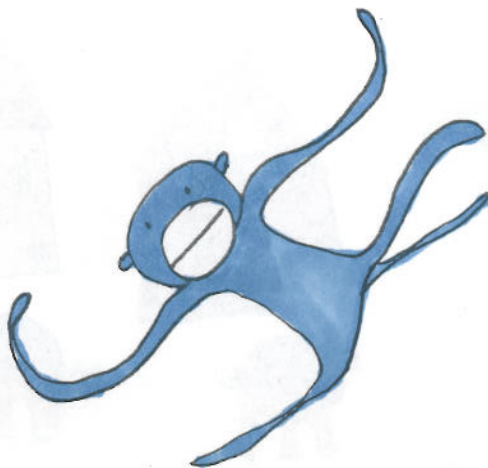

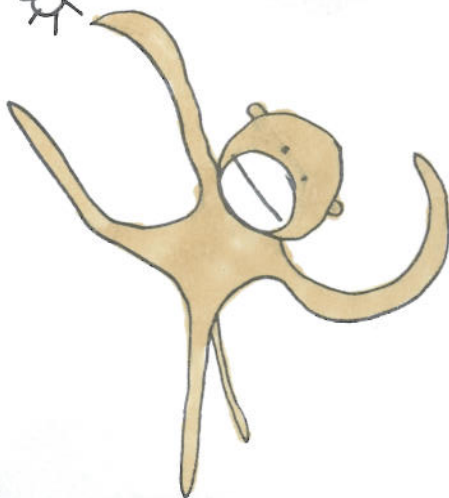

over & over again

Somewhere in the middle a
generous angel called Sasha
showed up

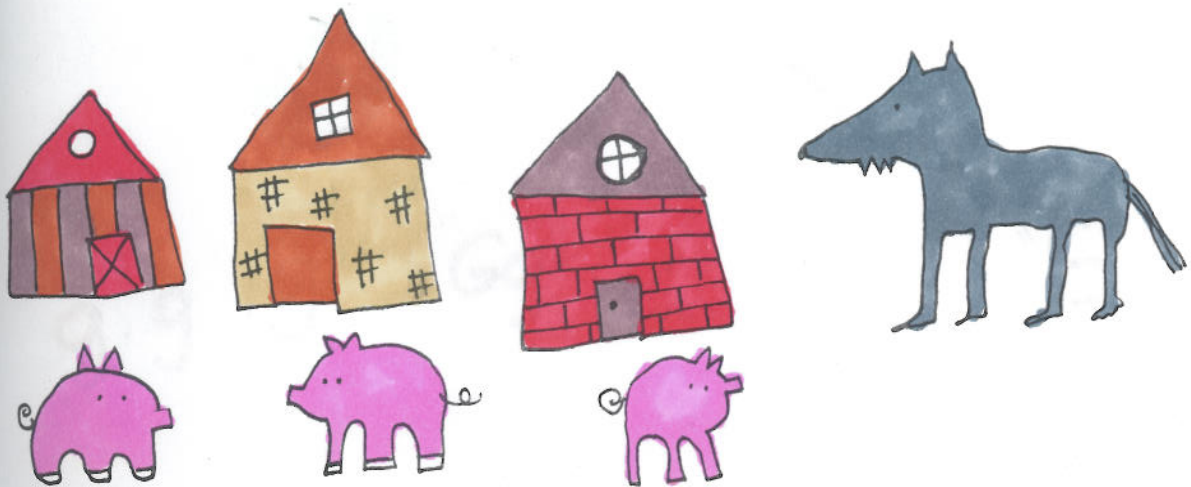

so we kept practicing

Tasha also had a gobbling monster that ate toys and houses with pigs & a wolf

Bobo practiced & practiced & practiced more & more & more
& a hundred million Thousand times more ...

"g"

"M"

"SSS"

"T"

"K"

"U"

"K, K, K, K"

mmm

"T"

"V"

"g"

"g, g, g"

"Gg"

"S"

Until Bobo became Diego

ood

monkey

cookie

buzz

snake

horse

star wars

blanky

batman

chips

ice

cream

dog

root beer

table

chair

Although mom, still calls him
Bobo sometimes

Bobo was a wonderful smart little boy who made up his own language. Other people had trouble understanding what he wanted to say.

Then he met Tasha, a knitting & wordpracticing fairy that helped him change it all.

